Despite religion being a common cultural connecting force, Janke society considers it to be a largely personal matter. A wide majority are practitioners of the United Dutch Church.

Rapture City

- In the underwater city, two roles have emerged from the City's ongoing civil war: the City Monitors who defend the peace and the Red Caps who fight against unjust systems. The city's infrastructure is crumbling under its own weight and kinship is snuffed by the paranoia of totalitarianism. Yet the people would be in for a surprise as their virtual overlord have died many years ago as the oppression continues under his name...
- Not an 1-1 exact replica of Bioshock lore and Rapture City. Only the city's atmosphere and setting is maintained.

Rapture is located roughly 433 kilometers west of Reykjavik, the capital of Iceland, in the chilly waters of North Atlantic. It has a population of 7.7 million -which is impressive for any city, much less an underwater colony.

Aliens called Lanteans arrived on a planet called Terra, mixed in with the local Terrans, and formed a government. And there was a flourishing of scientific development starting from the year 1500. But a war started in 1750 when the Terrans were discovered by the native Humans (prior to this, the Terrans concealed themselves with Lantean technology). The war ended when the humans' memories were wiped by someone with a supernatural power later known as Geass, and the Terrans had to rebuild. The government became an autocratic monarchy with some democratic elements. From 2000 to 2100, there were conflicts over environmentalism, which culminated in a man named Arill leading an interstellar relocation effort. They landed on a planet which was called Arillia, developed even more advanced technologies (but had to be cautious with spatiotemporal manipulation). From 2200, they spread out to occupy two-thirds of the galaxy. The Galactic Empire of Arillia is currently at war with the Terran Empire.

The Negimaru (ネギ丸) or "green onion circle" is the name of their flag that they adopted on March 1968. The white background represents integrity while the turquoise disk represents the water surrounding the country, and the hair of Hatsune Miku, a legendary singer and founder of Hatsunia according to folklore.

Kabzeel, meaning "God's Gathering" in hebrew, is a federal, dominant-party, socialist(non-marxist)constitutional monarchy with a rich Jewish heritage dating back to it's creation in 845 CE. Today, it spans almost the entirety of Eastern Europe and is the largest predominately Jewish and female-led state in the world as it follows the doctrine of "Royal Socialism", a paternalistic conservative ideology with an emphasis on socialization, social ownership, and conservative feminism. Its relationship with Israel is noticeably rocky, but this is due to the ongoing complications between Kabzeelian and Israeli Zionism.

The Kabzeelians are extremely polite, well mannered, straightforward and open. They commonly formally address any person they interact with even if they do not know them and their sense of common courtesy for others is always paramount in all interactions.

Their nation implemented a eugenics-style population control system in order to control growth. Presumably, there's also some idea of "New Soviet Man" in there.

Their legislature is split among 5 houses: English, Spanish, French, Dutch, and Portuguese.

There are five official languages (English, Spanish, French, Dutch, and Portuguese). Cities are tall and dense with arcologies, but not too dense, and there is an emphasis on balance with the environment. The economy is resource-based.

edit: ninja'd

The current President of Kabzeel believes in social conservatism and opposition to LGBT rights, but also in worker's rights, regulations on capitalism, and a conservative form of feminism.
