Stratovarius - "Infinity" (The name of the song suggests it goes on forever... sadly it doesn't though)

Anyway judging off the comments in that video, it seems that Dragon Ball Z ripped off this song. It wouldn't be the only one, so I am not surprised at all.

If you could see some of those places, I bet you would be worse than me
Oh you can say that I am drowning, but you should have seen me when I was alright
I am done with your pity, so (now) "Thank you and good night"

29 minutes long doom metal masterpiece.

Reverend Bizarre - Sorrow

A night like this, I wish I could find my way out of this world
No matter how hard I try to forget and clear my mind
The sorrow comes

The sorrow of being left behind
The sorrow of the destroyed dream
The sorrow when all trust is gone
The sorrow giving birth to the will to die

Breaking Benjamin - "The Diary of Jane"

I have never listened to this band before, but this song makes a very good impression. I might go listen to some more.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
