Reading one of the comments, people really need to relax. It's just acting, and not reality. Really, what's the problem with having a child play a role of a corpse? I don't see the big deal. I've seen kids play much more 'questionable' roles in actual films, and I have no problems with it.

Anyway, my only response to the video is

Forgot about him until tonight. Sadly, the studio versions disappeared from YouTube, but here's a good live one.

Edit: Huh, album I know is on Spotify. Neat.
