Considering how vast they span and how they are still a capitalist America-like country, I'd say I'll gladly visit them but I'll probably not live there.

I'll visit, but I don't want to live in a place where airplane engines freeze midflight(?), but might reconsider if I am allowed to create a small business without applying to the government

It has a great quality of life, but the whole "Stalinist Hardliner Monarchy" thing is uh...not my cup of tea, so to say. Family left Russia few generations back so that they didn't have to go through the whole Bolshevik terror thing. I'd rather not experience it myself.

Ninja'd.

Yeah, sure. Drongonia seems nice enough, with not a lot of more sinister stuff about it. Nice place.
