Me who says English is hard but knows it's easy compared to stuff like what TTE mentioned:

I mean, it ain't easy. No non-auxlang is. English just has the advantage of being so amorphous with its rules that not only can you make a mistake but still be generally understood, it can evolve super easily.

Man, no offense to the Inuit, but imagine if their language was the Lingua Franca. As an English Speaker, their grammatical rules are just - well - it's pretty complex.

English is definitely a flexible language for its ability to move words between classes (for example, using a noun as a verb) without additional derivational morphology (prefixes, suffixes, etc)

Literally the most annoying crap ever, I'm not exactly one to talk since I think I'm one of the newest nations in this thread (in terms of nation founding date)...yeah, but still not a fan.

I do see it in character factbooks and posts on YL's opinions about AL.

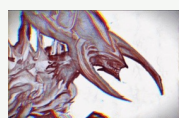

Well, in the former mostly when I scroll down to the 'For and Against' section.

Ever read his book, This Is Why I Hate You? His self-insert named 'Arthur' is this rather unpleasant atheist who complains about crosses and super gods. Also, sex.

Yes, and he beats up people he hates, from his school bully to his dad. I can't remember exactly but all I can say there is one section in the book Arthur has sex with his girlfriend after her younger brother died in some accident.

It's a bad thing to lie but no. However, I previewed the book and then watched reviews on YouTube about the book; then I looked up the book to read for free but stopped the moment I remember how godawful the writing is.
