Depends on who is looking at it.

I say 3/10. The average American, on the other hand, would probably give it a much higher rating.

Yeah, I think I can put a straight-up 10/10 on a red flag where a minotaur eats a human. Everyone cool with that? Cool.

I use my NationStates stats, because a population of billions/trillions and an economy of hundreds of trillions is totally viable, trust me.
But seriously, aside from the population and GDP, just assume that my NS stats are roughly accurate.

I instinctively distrust anything coming from children's television.
To me, it's associated with corporate monstrosities, greed, child abuse (the show hosts), heteronormative messaging, status quo, and keeping everybody ill-informed and / or consumerist.
