Well, someone may punch that racist, or perhaps if remarks disturb folks too much, shreiff might issue a fine for such misconduct.

The woman is restrained by police drones, injected with a calming serum and given a small fine and a one-day mandatory visit to a cognitive therapy center to have her craziness removed with sci-fi brain tech magic stuff.

Building a high-altitude weather balloon carrying several hundred thousand timed-release aerosol capsules containing a WIDE plethora of contagious genetically-engineered timed-activated pathogens meant to annihilate population centers and destroy ecosystems by harming microbiomes in soil, then engineering antidotes to all of them and releasing the balloon upwind of BN such that the capsules will deploy over BN. When this happens, the perpetrator intends to supply BN with the antidote before the pathogens' molecular timers run out in exchange for turning them into a puppet state while threatening to release another balloon with unique pathogens with no antidote if they try to retaliate. As the perpetrator makes a speech about this, however, the balloon fails to release its capsules and is safely intercepted and destroyed, whereupon BNs intelligence services triangulate his position and apprehend him.

I mean Synnian administrative bodies surrounding the regulation of aviation have somewhat lengthy processes to decide whether or not to revoke an aircraft or class of aircraft's airworthiness. It would be hard to get past the approval without a valid reason let alone no reason whatsoever but in the case that this does happen, the main punishment would likely take the form of a fine with varying severity depending on what you've kept out of the air and for how long.

The theft of one of those recycling machines where you pop-in a few dozen cans and it spits out a dollar or two.

Hi, it's been a while. If you're seeing this then it means what I'm working on is not quite done yet. You can still read my old stuff but it's probably not canon anymore. I'll try to get something up soon. It may or may not involve wizards.

I meant grounding as in discipline. But that's valid too.

How the hell this is supposed to be a crime?

An edgy guy makes lots of violent video game mods or maps, which resemble the school, he studies at. He also reads alot about guns, gunsmithing, makeshift bombs and tactics. But... Actually, he is an extremely kind guy. And he never even tried to get any explosives or guns.

Refusing to follow orders is considered a form of sedition under our laws. And sedition is punishable by torture and death. And it doesn't matter if it violates "international laws", we didn't sign any such international agreements, we're almost certainly larger than whatever that organization is, and we plan to kill anyone that tries to stop us anyways. The only laws we recognize as legitimate are our own; we have a longstanding policy of violently killing any third parties that try to tell us we're not allowed to do something.

As a soldier, having a cardboard cutout of yourself take your post for you?
