Not a crime in and of itself as long as fraud (or coercion) is not the intent and once the ruse is over, no harm or foul play has been done. For example dressing up as a Policeman for a Halloween Party and pranking people in good humor.) Fraud statutes vary from a possible but unlikely slap on the wrist (1st time offence for a not so bright person dressing as a fireman to drive the firetruck (I am reaching for straws here), to capital offence for impersonating an officer during wartime.

Impersonating a Security Guard with several others and absconding with an armored truck (or your nation's analog) carrying intrinsically valuable national treasure?
