The Naked and Famous-Hearts Like Ours

Sounds like more of their synthpop. Understandable since their previous singles appear to be.

I'm not sure. I don't listen to them regularly.

It was just on the radio.

Just checked, and yes, it is from a new album that isn't even out yet.

Yo dawg, I heard you like the Elder Scrolls.

The Naked and Famous is like one of those bands I shouldn't like but I do for some reason. They do vary quite a bit and they have some interesting guitar work when not doing their synthpop songs. Not something I really listen to much, though.

I'd link to it, but the original version seems to have disappeared, and all that's left are remixes and live versions.

I think Lady Gaga can sing but her music I find boring and generic so I can't really get myself to listen to her. I think if she decided to be more musically interesting I might enjoy her more.

I think I like maybe 2 Green Day songs.

Linkin Park I actually like some of their newer songs which was really hard for me to accept because I hated them as I grew up ☐

The weird thing is now that I've expanded my music horizons more I think I tolerate Linkin Park BETTER then I used to.

I think they were unique for their time even though I hear like 4 songs of theirs that sound almost exactly the same. I don't really think their particular style existed much when they started it.

It's the American Idiot album I like, because it's much darker themed than most punk.

Lady Gaga isn't always generic. Next song I post I'll show you an example of how it can vary. Although I would prefer she sings for metal.

I ignore any LP album that isn't Meteora or Hybrid Theory, in the same way I ignore any C&C game made by EA (except Generals, so yes I like one LP song from another album)
