Monkey 1170 died from not living, and also blew its brains out trying to figure out how that's even possible.

"Shhh, go away", gesticulated monkey #1064 to Schrödinger's cat. "This box is a trap. I do not know, if it will kill you, maybe it doesn't. Look, this is what would happen, if you went into it and closed it like this and activated the radioactive device...oops. Get help, fast!"

Is the monkey dead? Is he dead and not dead? Have I killed and not killed him?

1063 heard the noise of 1064's superimposed fate and rushed in the room. Unfortunately, he wiggled enough subatomic particles to cause himself to spontaneously disintegrate into dust.
