9247 realized that he was doomed to die and might as well give the people killing his brethren the middle finger by jumping off a cliff.

Monkey 9242 establishes a Stalinist monkey regime. Their territory is governed similar to human societies and learns concepts similar to nationalization. They implement collective harvesting. This leads to the death of 1000 monkeys.

Start at Monkey 8242.

Then how come a hundred monkeys died a few posts ago? And before that, a thousand. And other examples of the rule not applying before those. The point is, that rule is obsolete.
