Every forum is an echo chamber. The whole "NSG Hate" thing is pretty much exclusively a thing because we don't mingle with NSGers on the regular, since our interests are entirely separate. That's a primary phenomenon of the internet really imo; we group together based on shared interests and not more tangible factors.

The thing is that every community other than NSG on this forum also hates NSG.

This is not shared by any other community. Apart from maybe us here in F7. But most people don't think we exist as a community so.

To be honest there's significant user overlap between every other forum except for NSG and F7, but yeah, I get your point.

I would go out of my way to explain nicely that yes, while most of the threads are one-line spam games, F7 is also that chill semi-RP place where most people develop their lore. I mean sure, other RP sub forums do that too, but come on. We have more to offer, that's for certain. ♥◻ Shitposting is considerably way less awkward than a header titled "White Supremacy Discussion thread" where people talked about fighting racism with racial fetishes...or something...idk. I lurk on NSG but my fuse is far too short to get political. The way they can't focus on a single topic is also kinda whack, or maybe I'm just obsessive with themes.

I kinda admire how some NSGers seem to have some kind of respectful work-like relationship and familiarity with one another, but I don't like the smarmy passive-aggressive vibes in debate.

Yeah, we've got lots to offer! ^-^

What I like about Forum7 roleplay, as opposed to other forums, is that Forum7 has pretty low stakes. I can engage when I have time without worrying about being committed to something I can't keep up with later. And if there's a low-effort interaction, it's unfortunate but very temporary. I can always look forward to future interactions!

Though I would like to do a longer-form roleplay in another forum at some point. But I'm not as familiar with how those get started.
