Have you heard of Secret Chiefs 3? It is a great band (probably my dad's favorite) by Trey Spruance, the guitarist of Mr. Bungle. The whole project is pretty much masterminded by him, I believe. This is another example of a band I grew up on, along with things like Sleepytime Gorilla Museum, Faun Fables, Charming Hostess, and so on and so forth. They vary wildly.

I've listened to them passingly, but I've enjoyed what I've heard. I think I put a song of theirs in here a couple pages back. Anyway, that's pretty cool. Mike Patton and Spruance are some good music to grow up to.

Huh, I just checked and noticed he was previously a member of Battles. Specifically the vocals and guitar. Which I didn't realize until now was why the newest Battles album doesn't have the same cool weird tweaked vocals as the first album, and they get guest vocalists instead.

Which also reminds me I need to listen to the "new" Battles album It has only been 2 years.....

I was thinking you may of been the one I saw posting a song of theirs at one point. But yeah, my dad specifically has always been interested in varying types of music.

Also, I'd listen to that song, but my mom just started using Netflix and it completely sucks up my ability to use YouTube. Or, at least, listen to anything on YouTube.

Hammock-Always Wishing You Were Somewhere Else

And no, the above is not me listening to that on YouTube. I'm listening to it on Spotify and liking it on YouTube.
