Girl Woman is stunned when he sees Celica Man pull up not in his 1999 Toyota Celica, as he usually does, but rather, an LAV-25, all while Dirty Harry is heard playing from inside the cabin.

Celia Man says to Woman that he is buying a new MRAP, complete with a machine gun, and he has to tow it back to home.

Woman immediately dumped Celica Man because she's a pacifist, but woman's little sister girl still likes him.

We now shift our attention back to Woman and Fat Susan, who were otherwise ignored and forgotten by Foxdeen in favor of Man. The both of them travel across five counties east, before stopping at a rest top by the interstate.

There, Woman spots Celica Man's LAV-25 parked beside the gas station sign, but neither Him or Girl were spotted near it. She wonders what might he be doing here, and how did he manage to get a Reconnaissance Vehicle onto a busy highway without law enforcement pursuing them.

Celica Man robbed the gas station and gets arrested by a cop named Bob for this, plus the fact that his LAV-25 doesn't have a license plate. Girl slapped Celica Man in the face as she called her mom like the spoiled little 15-year old brat she was. Meanwhile, Woman and Fat Susan watch the situation with focused eyes.

A few hours later, Girl and Woman's mom shows up in a brown 1987 Dodge Caravan with woodgrain paneling and a busted tail lamp.

Woman & Girl, who are now casually driving down the highway in their mother's 1987 Caravan. Girl is sitting in the passenger seat reading a book called An Aeron's Day involving this gigantic communist space empire nation named the Tessian Hegemony and its interstellar conquests of faraway stars. Meanwhile, Ninja Man and Wheelchair Man are now good buddies and are trying to hitch a ride. They end up flagging down Woman & Girl, who can't help but realize that they are familiar from somewhere.
