2/10

The island of the Galapagos and the main power of South America controlling the West of South America. Militaristic and authoritarian with a troubled past and an uncertain future with stability at an all time low due to a lost war and unpopular occupiers.

Simple design with dark colors. They are going to expand their living space into the filthy domains of their neighbor's.

My travels take me many places, from the scorching sands to the cold, dark vacuum of space. But I always return to my friends and family at The Pub.

3/10 as their flag seems peaceful, but at the same time seems like the flag of a colonial empire

A holier Austrian Empire which adopted the March Constituion, stopping the fall of the empire

The reason we are Holy, is because a complicated series of events in Austrian history, that I haven't written down yet, because I'm not at that part of my history yet, caused the Catholic Church to be moved to Vienna instead of Rome

bn: you can do the flag with the fancy image overlayed on it but if you don't want to here's the display flag without the image:
