I only discovered this band like, a couple weeks ago. Maybe less. But I've been searching for a good Slavic metal band for ages, I just hadn't found the sound I was looking for until I heard Arkona. So naturally I went deeper into their discography and turns out there's nothing they've written that I don't love.

Emilia Plater - Horytnica

Album: Historie Walk O Wolność

Now that I've gotten plenty of Russian music in, I'm going to listen to one of my favorite Polish bands before bed.

I stumbled upon them accidentally in the past and gave some of their stuff a listen and enjoyed it. I might have to re listen to them again.

They popped up on either my Alestorm or Sabaton pandora station, I forget which. I like them too.
