The spiders will probably be exterminated, and you'll get a severe fine and depending on the damage: a public beating.

According to the old native law, you will be locked in a tiny room in a cave, that sits beneath the active lava vents. Over the course of what could be a few days or weeks, depending on how the fire god is feeling, you will be slowly roasted alive by the insane amounts of geothermic heat. Of course nowadays, you just have to spend 50 years in federal prison.

You have created an unlicensed sperm bank which gets it's "donations" mixed up all the time, and so all sorts of STD's are spread around, killing many women. What is your fate?

Fined for the total damages caused plus an extra, prison time as well.

Ninja'd

Technically covered by freedom of speech, however if it's an important/significant/rare/historic book (not by its contents, think like the diary of a previous Prime Minister, the last known copy of a given book or a Rare copy of a novel) then you can get into trouble for destroying historical heritage. But otherwise... covered by Freedom of Speech and not a crime.

Not a crime, but the police will scour your history to see if you are being serious. If you are being serious, that is a crime and you are sentenced to jail for 1 year.
