No punishment except for a (metaphorical) death stare if done via non-emergency channels. Standard fine for a fake report otherwise.

Rickrolling the entire country via official Government communication channels?

20 years in prison, but only due to the fact that they hacked into government communication channels. (If it is a government official doing this, a 300 dollar fine and immediate termination.)

I dunno how a water pistol have threatened the store staff and managed to steal, but the punishment is hard labor and 8 months to 20 years on prison depending on how many and how much he stole.

Escaping mandatory soldier training or conscription?

5-6 years in prison and a criminal record of violence, preventing you from owning weapons.
