Sorci has no state religion, so no official crime, just a heavy look of confusion from your local justice of the peace when you get brought in under armed guard.

Attempted assassination of the head of YN's treasury department via throwing a gold bar.

Arms Dealing, Blockade Running, Black Market Procurement, Mercenary Contracting. We get you what you want, where you want it, for a price. We also chose to not sign anti-piracy laws for a reason, it'd be a shame if your cargo went missing.

Not a crime, the Elders would probably like it.

Probably a beating or death if we had a "treasury department" or gold bars.

If that stands for what I think it stands... not a crime, but doing marches or parades that block public streets, public demonstrations of affection, exposing children to your movement, etc. are all crimes. Freedom of association protects supporting the movement though.

Depending on what was stolen, it'd range from nothing (i.e. they only did it to save their own life) to defenestration.

While not a crime, it's generally socially unacceptable and could be classed as disturbance of the peace. The degree of which would net the individual a small fine.

Commercial burglary is generally met with enrolment into a rehabilitation programme, coinciding with community service and a debt of compensation to the burgled party.

attempted murder and robbery? 20 years correctional labour, if the victim survives. We don't do rehabilitation, and a work-camp prisoner is a net positive for the state after all.
