AN (Edit): There are only four choices (for now), and as "[t]here are many political parties" in your nation, you could explain them in basic detail. That reminds me, I should also expand my political parties factbook.

Hello! You made this exact same post a mere two days ago. Please try to avoid responding to someone twice in such a short space of time without at least adding a spin on it, like who your country's electorate would vote for or your leader or something else, and please stop demanding that others choose two of your parties. You have 18 parliamentary parties and 24 extra-parliamentary parties to choose from.
