Did you ever hear the tragedy of Monkey 5257 The Wise? I thought not. It's not a story the Jedi would tell you. It's a Sith legend. Monkey 5257 was a Dark Lord of the Sith, so powerful and so wise he could use the Force to influence the midichlorians to create life... He had such a knowledge of the dark side that he could even keep the ones he cared about from dying. The dark side of the Force is a pathway to many abilities some consider to be unnatural. He became so powerful... the only thing he was afraid of was losing his power, which eventually, of course, he did. Unfortunately, he taught his apprentice everything he knew, then his apprentice killed him in his sleep. Ironic. He could save others from death, but not himself.

The Date; 21 February 1916.
The Location; Just outside Verdun.

A monkey, trained in relaying messages runs through the muddy terrain. Her light feet, small size, and speed making her better than her human peers. Her mission, to inform HQ of an amassing German artillery to the fort's commander.

Sadly, 5256 was not fast enough, and the first German shell detonated only a metre away vaporising her instantly.

Lest we forget.

Monkey 5253 was buttbuttinated by Monkey 5254 in S*horpe. He left behind a wife and child in H E Double Hockey Sticks, Michigan, both of whom were killed by trolls a day later.

Proper number is 5250.

Monkey 5217 created a machine that kills every monkey including himself, and used, therefore wiping out the monkey species.

Mass-Genocide of Monkey 5217, and swiftly assassinated him and turned off the machine, thus continuing the Great Monkey Genocide as normal. However, Monkey 5216 was killed not shortly after the assassination as he was disassembling the machine and got stuck in it, thus suffocating him by design flaws shown within Monkey 5217's Blueprints.

Monkey 5215 had his brains eaten by the horde of Monkeys 5220 through 5249 which had been quietly infected by 5259 while Fatatatutti wasn't paying attention. The remaining 5214 monkeys now have a severe zombie problem on their hands.

Monkey 5204 was neglected to be mentioned, and so died, cold and alone, forgotten from the thread entirely.

So long, Arecibo. You've done us some great work. Now, it's time to rest.

Monkey 5203 died a hero. He charged into the horde of zombie-monkeys guns blazing, and killed every last one of them. Unfortunately, he was bitten several times in the process. He died from a gunshot wound to the head. Self-inflicted.

But for his sacrifice, this could have turned into a bizarre knock-off continue the story thread. RIP.

Monkey 5217 made plans in case of his death, and created a clone Monkey 5217b. You see, Monkey 5217 created and implanted a microchip designed to track his vitals, and transmit them to his backup facility, where his cloning machine resides. In the case that the facility cannot detect vitals, the cloning process will automatically begin. The clone will then have Monkey 5217's memories and knowledge downloaded, and will implant its own microchip, continuing the cycle, resulting in effective immortality as long as the facility, which is completely secret and near impregnable, exists. Monkey 5217b then continues his project to wipe out his species, and create a new race of super monkeys, who will build a utopia from the resulting clean slate.
