While I'm half-assing my music listening, I might as well go through one of their albums.

The Cranberries-I Can't Be With You

I love Irish accents.

I love lots of accents with the right people, like British, Russian, and so on, but yeah.

I wouldn't mind* having an Irish accent, but I'm satisfied with my slight Polish one.

if Saoirse Ronan's portrayal of a Polish accent is correct in The Way Back (It probably is, because she's Irish and has successfully pulled off many accents before), Polish accents sound cool, too.

Not that I completely remember the accent properly, but yeah.

My grandpa still seems to think I have a northerner accent ever since I lived in Caribou, Maine, but I dunno.

I'm so mixed I'm not sure what I would be. My last name is German, but my moms side was majorly Norwegian, so who knows.

'Tis better for thyself to speaketh with the accent of a Northerner than of a Southerner.
