Paradise Lost - Ordinary Days

How can a band, that was behind The Plague Within, have ever done anything THIS shitty.

Beherit - The Oath Of Black Blood

Throw early Bathory and equally early Sodom in the blender and this is pretty much the result.

Out of curiosity I gave that song a listen and I actually enjoyed it.

Good for you. For me that album has a honor of being the third worst I've ever listened to, I could barely give it 1/10

Heh. Cadonica just discovered Paradise Lost and decided to listen the whole discography in one setting. I, however, saw the band live for the first time more than twenty years ago. The album Host is uncommon because of its Depeche Mode-like vibe, but that doesn't explain Cadonica's gut reaction. He is known to like synth pop as well, after all. Oh well, back to the regular program.

That's simply the way I do things, I wanna check out the band, better check it all. Otherwise I'd say "it sucked" and get told "you didn't listen to right albums!" so yeah. And like with everything, same applies to synth pop, there's good and there's bad stuff, Host falls into latter category.

And that's my favorite Beherit song by the way.
